

Week of Respect

In all publicly-funded New Jersey schools, the first week of October is recognized as the "Week of Respect." Each OPS classroom had lessons during the week that focused on developing compassion and inclusion, learning the differences between normal conflict and bullying, and identifying the characteristics of past and current role models.

Another highlight of the week was when the Oradell Kids Foundation-sponsored "Buddy Bench" was unveiled this week for our K-2 students, and lessons for upper-grade students focused on being an "Upstander" and not a Bystander.

In an effort to add excitement to the week, there were three special spirit days during the week. Monday, October 2nd was "National Wear BLUE to Stomp out Bullying" day. Wednesday, October 4th was "Dress as Someone You Respect Day!" Friday, October 6th was "Wear Your Favorite Team Shirt" to remember we are all part of a team at OPS!

Turkey Trot

The second annual OPS Turkey Trot occurred during November. The goal of the Turkey Trot is to actively engage students in service opportunities - showing even our youngest students that they can make a difference. Students asked family and friends to pledge a specific number of nonperishable items for each lap that they ran during a Physical Education class. Then, during three days in November, each OPS student took to Memorial Field to see how many laps they could run. After sharing with those who pledged to sponsor them, they then began bringing in their food items this year our school community donated over 7000 food items to the Center for Food Action.

Eyes on OPS

FALL/WINTER 2017

Tom Ackerman Commendation

In August, Oradell School custodian Thomas Ackerman spotted a house fire while he was on an errand in Bergenfield. Fearing that the house might still be occupied he stopped his vehicle and began knocking on doors. He was eventually able to awaken the occupants of the house and helped two people to safety before the Fire Department arrived on the scene.

At the Oradell Board of Education meeting on November 1st, Board President Dorothy Watson-Nichols and Superintendent John Anzul took a few minutes to recognize Mr. Ackerman for his act of heroism and presented him with a framed copy of the commendation that is re-printed below.

Commendation

Whereas, OPS employee Thomas Ackerman displayed heroism in the face of imminent danger to himself; and,

Whereas, on August 27, 2017, Thomas Ackerman came upon a house where he observed signs of smoke and flames; and,

Whereas, Thomas Ackerman approached the burning building, and was able to awaken one of the sleeping residents; and,

Whereas, Thomas Ackerman then entered the burning building in order to rescue another resident who was asleep, whom he then also assisted in escaping from the fire unharmed; and,

Whereas, Thomas Ackerman notified the police that the building had been safely evacuated, and then left the scene without giving his name; and,

Whereas, Thomas Ackerman's heroic actions resulted in preserving the lives of two people who might otherwise have been severely injured or killed.

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Oradell Board of Education hereby commends Thomas Ackerman for his courageous act of heroism, and thanks him for his ongoing service to our community.

Message from the Superintendent

As we enter into the holiday season and think about turning the annual page over to 2018, I want to extend my most sincere thank you to everyone in the Oradell Public School community for their warm welcome and incredible support during the first several months of my tenure as the new Superintendent of OPS. I have come to realize that Oradell is a great community because it is one where parents, teaching staff, administrators, and Board of Education members come together to serve the educational, social, and emotional needs of our students. I want to thank all of you for putting the needs of our students at the forefront of our work here at Oradell Public School.

It has been a very busy start to the 2017-2018 school year and we have much to be proud of here at OPS. Walking the hallways and classrooms these past few months, has allowed me to see and experience so many outstanding efforts by our administration, teachers, staff, and students. Within this newsletter, we hope to offer insights into a handful of the wonderful educational initiatives that are taking place for our students here at OPS. Our Board of Education has also been hard at work, setting and planning both District and Board of Education Goals, identifying needs for the current and upcoming school year, and working to enhance what has been done in our school district in the past. I encourage you to either stop by an upcoming Board of Education meeting, or watch a video recording of the meeting (available on our website), to learn more about what is happening in our school.

Highlighted within this issue of our district newsletter are just some of the recent initiatives and accomplishments at OPS. From charitable and community service activities, to academics and new technology, you will see what we already know—that OPS is truly a place for our students to learn, grow, and prepare for their future!

I thank you again for your investment in our students and Oradell Public School, and I wish you and your family a wonderful holiday and a healthy and happy New Year!

Yours in education,
Superintendent

The Future Ready Schools Initiative

As we work to prepare our students for this world, we must ensure that our school provides them with the technology-rich environment that they need in order to be engaged and successful members of a digital society and workforce.

Future Ready Schools – New Jersey (FRS-NJ) is a certification program designed to promote digital learning readiness in schools throughout New Jersey by providing guidance, support, direction, and resources to schools and districts. The program, a partnership of the New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE), the New Jersey School Boards Association (NJSBA) and New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT), will help schools promote the skills, abilities, and capacities essential for success in college, career, and citizenship in a digital age.

Based at NJIT, the program will ultimately target approximately 2,500 K-12 schools with 1.4 million New Jersey students. At the heart of the FRS-NJ program is the commitment to help communities move along the path towards full digital learning readiness and implementation by providing support and guidance to all stakeholders in the community, while generating awareness of the programs and resources that exist to aid them.
